STATINTL Subject: Request Permission to Address Economic Seminar

Attached is a copy of the referenced memorandum. It was submitted to the Office of Security on 10 May 1976 and STATINTL was not returned until 17 May 1976, after the date of Mr. [REDACTED]' presentation. For that reason, we did not send it to the ADDI for approval, but would like it included in the statistics you keep on campus contacts.

STAT

SUBJECT : Request Permission to Address Economic Seminar

1. It is requested that I be granted permission to address, on 13-14 May 1976, several under-graduate classes on Comparative Economic Systems at Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, Pennsylvania. Additionally, I request permission to participate in an informal senior seminar on world economic development.

2. As an alumnus of Washington and Jefferson, I will be participating as a practicing economist with my Agency affiliation known. I will use only unclassified material and will state that the views I express are my own. As these will be informal lectures and discussions no text will be used.
